NEGRO OFFICER IS REMOVED

Negro Police Officer at the Bay Shore Resort Relieved of His Position on Grounds of Negligence—Judgments Are Given Against R. S. Hudgins—Walsh-Hawkins Case Up.

In the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon County Engineer Girard Chubb submitted his report on the survey of the neck of land, which is in dispute between Miss Anne Welsh and Mrs. Mary Hawkins. According to the surveyor's opinion the strip of property is on Miss Welsh's land and the court will later hear the case.

Mr. Fay S. Collier and Colonel J. W. Friend represent Mrs. Hawkins, while Mr. Samuel Gordon Cunningham is the attorney for Miss Welsh. The court recently granted an injunction restraining either of the litigants from interfering with the other until the ownership of the property is finally determined.

Stevenson is Removed.
Judge Robinson, after hearing the evidence, yesterday afternoon removed Peter B. Stevenson, a negro, from the office of special policeman for the Bay Shore colored resort. Stevenson was charged with neglect of duty in that he failed to prevent the sale of whiskey at the resort on Sundays.

Judgment Against Hudgins.
Judgment in favor of the Owen-Minor Company, the Vaughan-Richard Drug Company and James Bailey & Sons, aggregating a total of $591.65 were allowed by the court against Robert S. Hudgins, Jr., formerly the junior partner of the drug firm of Gardner & Hudgins. Mr. Gardner went into bankruptcy and the creditors are now suing Mr. Hudgins in order to recover the amounts due them. Mr. John Weymouth represents the creditors.

Dr. Shields's Resignation.
Dr. Frank W. Shields has tendered his resignation to Judge Robinson as a member of the Elizabeth City County Electoral Board and the court accepted it. Dr. Thomas H. Parramore has been named as the successor of Dr. Shields.

Judge Robinson will adjourn the court for the term today.

YORK COUNTY MAN ILL.

Mr. Alonza Topping, a well known young man of York county, was brought to the Dixie Hospital yesterday by Dr. Fay Sinclair and later underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Topping's case is a most aggravated one of four days' standing and his condition last night was said to be very serious. Dr. G. W. McAlister, assisted by Drs. F. S. Sinclair, W. A. Plocker and J. Wilton Hone, performed the operation.

Fined $1 and Costs.

The jury in the Circuit Court yesterday returned a verdict imposing a fine of $1 and costs upon J. T. Cochran for abusing Mrs. Foster, who resides near La Salle avenue. Cochran was fined $5 by Magistrate I. B. Wheeler and appealed to the higher court.

The Growing Boy.

"In the four years ending at the age of sixteen and a half, the boy has increased some forty-four pounds in weight, and so feels heavy and lanky; he is not fully used to so much of himself, and is a little embarrassed by his dimensions, dimly sensing the contrast between his size and his wisdom and experience," writes Dr. G. Stanley Hall in Appleton's for August. "These who judge him by his size perhaps overestimate his age; others treat him as a man, and yet his own family's idea of him has by no means kept pace with his mental growth, for they deem him yet a boy. So there is sometimes quite a contrast between his treatment at home and abroad."

Much of his growth has been in arms and legs, shoulders and hips and his movements are for a time less acid and rapid. He often seems maladroit, clumsy, handles things roughly, hits and often smashes dishes or bric-a-brac bumps against furniture and even persons, is unhandy in his efforts to help, bungles, botches, blunders in his work. His manners are therefore less fine and seem to deteriorate a little, merely because the proportions of his body and the harmony of the development of the form and function of limbs and trunk are for a time unmet."

Loves Mustache More Than Fiancee.
Because he loved his mustache more than he loved his fiancée John Spilling of Sharpsburg, has sacrificed all chances of immediate return to marital bliss.

Since the death of his wife all applicants for the position of Mrs. Joan Spilling have decreed that the mustache must go because of the attention he lavished upon the facial adornment.

John always balked until he found a blonde from Chicago. To her he promised the mustache would come off. But he faltered when once away from the magic presence, and, forgetting the face and remembering the mustache, wandered into a saloon. Then it was all off with John. The blonde's presence departed and his children with a revolver, for which he must answer in court—Pittsburg Dispatch to the New York Herald.

Just So.

"Why are poets so little appreciated?" asked the young man with long hair.

"Well," answered Mr. Cumrox, "it's this way with a piece of poetry. If you can't understand it you don't care to read it, and if you can understand it you haven't any respect for it."—Washington Star.

Truth and Honesty.
Truth and honesty are powerful in helping a man to wage the fight successfully. Truthfulness is never to hang his head in shame, whether defending the right or making apology for the fault it admits. As for honor, as long as it means manhood always keep it in your hand; where the one is there will be the other be found.
